About Good Design Award

The Good Design Award, hosted by the Japan Institute for Design Promotion (JDP), is the only comprehensive design-promotion system in Japan. Its precursor, the Good Design Selection System (or G Mark System), was founded in 1957 by the Ministry of International Trade and Industry (the current Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry), and has been engaged in this work for about 60 years. Its history marks the milestones of Japanese industry and design. Since 2014, JDP has been operating Good Design Stores in Thailand and Taiwan to sell and promote Good Design Award-winning products, as a channel to promote Japanese design to the world. In addition, GOOD DESIGN Marunouchi was opened in Yurakucho Tokyo in 2015 as a permanent base for holding events and seminars and presenting contemporary design to the public.
